

hereby added to Article 17 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland (Bagby's Code), title "Clerks of Courts," sub-title "General Duties of Clerks," to be known as Section 2B, and when so added to read as follows:

2B. It shall be the duty of the Courts of Baltimore City and the Counties, where bills of sale are recorded, to provide a well bound and suitable book, to be styled "Conditional Contracts of Sales Docket," in which all notes, sales or contracts for the sale of goods and chattels, wherein the title thereto, or a lien thereon, is reserved until the same be paid in whole or in part, or the transfer of title is made to depend upon any condition therein expressed, and possession is to be delivered to the vendee, is to be recorded; and such recording shall contain a brief description of the goods and chattels in such paper writing mentioned, the date thereof, the amount due thereon, when and how payable and the names of the vendor, vendee, payee, guarantor and witness, if any, or such names in plural if they so appear; and the said Clerk shall index the names of the parties to said paper writing and shall receive therefor a reasonable and just compensation but not more for said work than is now provided by Law for the recording of other conveyances which require the same amount of work.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on the first day of June, 1916.

Approved April 18th, 1916.
