

4. Each member of said Board shall be paid his necessary expenses while in the discharge of his duties.

5. The State Board of Agriculture shall, through its duly authorized or appointed officers or agents, visit the stables of the city and counties wherever and whenever it has reason to believe contagious or infectious disease may exist; and it may have its officer or agent visit any such stable at any hour, and said officer or agent shall have power to order all animals which have been exposed to such contagion or infection to be isolated in such manner as the nature thereof may in his judgment render necessary to prevent the spreading of such disease; to order that any premises, farm or farms, stables or railway cars, where such disease exists, or has existed, be put in quarantine, so that no domestic animals of the same species shall be removed from or brought to the premises or place so quarantined until the same shall have been properly disinfected; to prescribe such regulations as he may judge necessary or expedient to prevent infection or contagion being communicated in any way from the places so quarantined; to call upon all sheriffs and deputy sheriffs, constables, policemen or other officers of the State, the City of Baltimore, or of any county, for information and assistance to carry out and enforce the provisions of such orders and regulations; to prescribe regulations for the destruction of animals affected with or exposed to an infectious or contagious disease, and for the proper destruction of their hides and carcasses, and all objects which might carry infection or contagion; to prescribe regulations for the disinfection of all buildings, premises and railway cars, and of all objects from which, or by which infection or contagion might take place, or be conveyed; to alter and modify from time to time, as he may deem expedient, the terms of all such orders and regulations, and to cancel or withdraw the same at any time; and it shall be the duty of all sheriffs and deputy sheriffs, constables, policemen or other officers of the State, City of Baltimore, or counties, to obey and observe all orders and instructions which they may receive from said State Board of Agriculture or its duly authorized officers or agents in the enforcement of the provisions of this Act within their respective jurisdiction.

6. Any person who shall violate or transgress the terms or requirements of any order or regulation issued and prescribed by the said State Board of Agriculture or its duly authorized officer under the authority of this Article, or shall
