

may be members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, or lineal descendants of said David and Elizabeth Cassell, as may need the comforts of said Home, and when such body corporate shall be duly formed the said Trustees, and their successors, if any, were directed by said deed to convey said property to such body corporate, all of which will more fully appear by reference to said deed recorded among the Land Records of Carroll County as aforesaid. Now, therefore, in order to enable said Trustees to carry out the benevolent purpose of the grantors in said deed of trust,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John D. Nicodemus, Amelia C. Aldridge, Charles C. Gorsuch, William H. Geiman and George P. B. Englar and H. H. Harman, Trustees, and their successors in office, elected in the manner hereinafter provided, shall be and they are hereby incorporated and made a body politic and corporate by the name of "The Cassell Home for the Aged," at Westminster, Carroll County, Maryland, and by that name shall have perpetual succession and be capable in law of receiving and holding in trust, and of using and disposing of all kinds of gifts, grants, conveyances, donations, devises and bequests of estate, real, personal and mixed, property and effects, not exceeding in amount and value two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and by said name may sue and be sued, plead and be pleaded, answer and defend, may have and use a common seal and the same may alter at pleasure, and may exercise all the other powers, incident to corporations aggregate, and all powers, rights and privileges granted to benevolent and charitable corporations by the General Laws of the State of Maryland, in such manner as the said Trustees or a majority of them may think proper, subject, nevertheless, to the control and direction of the Board of Managers hereinafter provided for, as to the use and application of the estate, property, effects and funds which the said Trustees and their successors shall hold or have in trust in virtue of this Act, and the deed referred to in the preamble of this Act.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the object and purpose of this Corporation is to enable said Trustees and their successors to provide the ways and means to carry out the benevolent and charitable intentions of said Elizabeth Cassell and Lydia Cassell and the other grantors in the deed mentioned in the preamble to this Act, and to that end there shall always be a Board of seven Trustees to hold the legal title to the prop-
