

minutes of every meeting and all acts done by them in pursuance of their duties, and shall cause to be kept a complete record of all monies received and disbursements thereof. They shall make a written report to the General Assembly of Maryland, at the beginning of its regular sessions, of the condition of the College and Station property, of all receipts and expenditures and of the educational and other work performed, provided, nevertheless, that no corporate business shall be transacted at any meeting unless at least five of the Trustees are present.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That the executive head of the College shall have authority, subject to the approval of the Board of Trustees, to give general direction to the work of the Institution in all of its departments. He shall have power to appoint the heads of departments and such other professors, assistants, instructors, tutors, and other officers of the said College to the positions established by the Board of Trustees, and he shall define their duties, and supervise the performance thereof, except that the Dean of the College, the Director of the Experiment Station, and the Director of the Extension Service shall be nominated by the executive head, and appointed by the majority vote of the Board of Trustees. The Trustees shall have power to remove from office any of the officers of the institution, by a majority vote of the whole Board when in their judgment the good of the College requires it. Provided, also, however, that the power to suspend and expel students for misconduct or other causes and to reinstate same is vested solely in the executive head of the college.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That all endowments of the Maryland Agricultural College are hereby granted to the Maryland State College of Agriculture and all powers, duties and obligations now enjoyed by or laid upon the Maryland Agricultural College, in connection with or by reason of any Public General Law of the State of Maryland, are hereby conferred and imposed upon The Maryland State College of Agriculture. The Maryland State College of Agriculture is empowered to receive and to hold in fee simple or any less estate, by gift, grant, bequest, devise or otherwise, any lands or tenements or other estates, real and personal.

SEC. 8. Be it further enacted, That all powers, duties and obligations devolving upon the said Maryland Agricultural College in connection with, or by reason of the various and several Acts of Congress of the United States of America, now
