

agers shall be selected by the Reformed Congregation as soon as practicable after the passage of this Act, two of whom shall serve until June 1st, 1918, and two of whom shall serve until June 1st, 1920. The said Congregations shall thereafter select every two years, each two members of said Board of Managers to take the place of those whose terms expire, for a period of four years, or until their successors shall be selected. Vacancies caused in said Board of Managers shall be filled by the remaining members of the Board for the unexpired term.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That the said Board of Managers shall meet within fifteen days after their election and organize by electing one of their number as Chairman and one as Secretary. The Secretary shall also be Treasurer, and shall serve until June 1st, 1918. They shall then reorganize between the first and 15th day of June, in the year 1918, and every two years thereafter between the 1st and 15th of June, as hereinbefore provided. The said Board of Managers shall, as soon as they shall have organized, take charge of all lands owned by the said two congregations or which may hereafter be owned by them, for burial purposes, and all books, papers and other property belonging thereto, and administer the same. They shall have power to make by-laws, rules and regulations for the government and management of the property in their charge, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State. They shall have power to appoint such other officers, agents and employees as they may consider necessary, to fix their duties, to provide for their payment, and may discharge any or all of them whenever they may deem it expedient so to do. They shall have power to designate the person or persons who in their judgment are proper and qualified to be entrusted with the digging, filling and walling of graves, and the making of all kinds of excavations for burial purposes, as well as for the foundations of all monuments, tombstones or other device therein, and for the walling of the same in the said burial grounds, and may prohibit the same from being done by any other person or persons. They shall lay out the said grounds into burial lots, drives, walks and such other devices as shall to them seem proper; they shall cause all burial lots to be numbered, marked or otherwise designated, and may dispose of them at such price and upon such terms as they may fix, and such lots when sold shall be for the purpose of sepulchre only, and shall not in any manner be subject to attachment or execution for debt, nor to public taxation of any kind, nor affected
