

permit in writing to the owner or owners of such land, or the party in possession thereof, when requested by them so to do. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall on conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace of the said County, be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, one-half of said fine to be paid to the informer and the other half to be paid to the County Commissioners of said County, for the improvement of the Public Roads of Frederick County.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of strictly enforcing the provisions of this Act, all game wardens, deputy game wardens, constables and the sheriff of Frederick County are hereby authorized to arrest, without warrant any person or persons, firm or corporation suspected of violating the provisions of this Act, and shall have the power to search for any birds or animals suspected of being unlawfully taken or unlawfully in the possession of any person or persons, firm or corporation, and to demand the opening of any box, game bag, trunk, suit case, barrel or receptacle of any house, room or apartment for the purpose of enabling said officer to make search for birds and animals suspected of being unlawfully killed or taken, and any person or persons, firm or corporation who, upon the demand of said officer, refuses to open any such apartment, house, room, box or receptacle of any kind owned by him, or in his possession or control, to enable said officer to make search as aforesaid, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00).

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That any person who fails to pay any fine or fines imposed under any of the provisions of this Act and for which no other provision is made, shall be committed to the County Jail for a term of days equal to the number of dollars of such fine or fines.

Approved April 18th, 1916.

---

CHAPTER 405.

(Vetoed.)