

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That every commissioner before entering upon the duties of his office, shall make oath before some justice of the peace for Prince George's County, that he will diligently and faithfully according to the best of his judgment perform the duties of a commissioner of said town, without favor, partiality, or prejudice, and a certificate of such qualification shall be returned by the said justice to the Commissioners to be filed and recorded among their proceedings.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall have power to meet and adjourn from time to time and shall at their first meeting after an election, choose from their own body a president, who shall preside at all their meetings, vote on all questions before them, and remain in office until superseded by the election of a new president after a new election of commissioners.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That they may appoint a clerk, prescribe his duties, and allow him such compensation as they may think proper.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the clerk shall enter all ordinances passed by the commissioners in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, which shall at all times be open to the inspection of the public, and copies of all ordinances shall be put up at the most public places in the village.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the commissioners may annually appoint a bailiff, who before entering upon his duties shall make oath before a justice of the peace of said county, that he will faithfully and impartially perform the duties required of him as bailiff of said town, according to the best of his skill and judgment, and who shall also give bond in the sum of fifty dollars for the faithful performance of his duties, the said bond to be approved by the Commissioners. The said bailiff, when he shall have qualified, shall have the powers of a constable under the laws of this State.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners may pass all by-laws and ordinances necessary to give effect to the powers vested in them by this charter, and impose fines, penalties and adopt forfeitures for the breach of their by-laws and ordinances; but no ordinance shall impose a fine, penalty or forfeiture for any one offense of more than ten dollars, or imprisonment for more than five days.
