

share of the cost of such improvement shall have been paid, shall be again assessed, and that reasonable notice and an opportunity to be heard shall be given to all persons interested before the final ascertainment of the amount of tax to be paid by such property; and The Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick shall provide for appeal to the Circuit Court for Frederick County, with right to a trial by jury, by any person or persons interested, including The Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick itself, from the decision of any Commission or Commissioners or other persons appointed to determine the amount or amounts of such special taxes or assessments, and providing further for an appeal to the Court of Appeals.

236BB. The provisions of Section 236A and Section 236B of Chapter 72 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1910, in so far as the same relate to assessing the cost of the work therein provided for, in whole or in part, upon the property binding upon any street or streets, lane or lanes, alley or alleys, or part thereof, where any such improvement has been made, shall apply to all property, whether owned by any individual, firm or corporation, or by the County of Frederick, or by the State of Maryland and also all property held in trust for State or County purposes; and all such property shall be assessed for any such improvements; provided however, that the County Commissioners of Frederick County may, in their discretion, pay to The Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick, in addition to the amount of any such assessment levied on property owned by them, such additional sum or sums of money, for any such improvement, as they shall think proper.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from and after the first day of June in the year 1916, and that all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act be and they are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

Approved April 11th, 1916.
