

commissioners, of which said election and the purpose thereof at least two weeks' notice shall be given by notice published in two local papers, and posted in conspicuous places in said town, giving the hours and place of holding said election; and if the majority of said voters shall declare "For New Charter" the provisions of this Act, Sections 91 to 116G, inclusive, shall immediately upon the announcement of said returns, be and become in full force and virtue in law, and become the Charter of said town, superseding and annulling all prior charters or Acts relating thereto; but should the majority of said voters declare "Against New Charter," then and in that event the present and existing town charter, as enacted by the Acts of 1912, chapter 720, shall remain in full force and effect in law as the charter of said town of La Plata; and it shall be the duty of the officials at said election to canvas the ballots, immediately upon the close of the polls and to certify the returns to the Board of Town Commissioners, who shall cause the result thereof to be posted in five or more conspicuous places about said town, within twenty-four hours after the holding of said election, declaring whether or not this Act has been accepted or rejected by said voters as the town charter of said town of La Plata.

91. The citizens of the town of La Pata, in Charles County, are hereby created a body corporate by the name of Town Commissioners of La Plata, with all the power and privileges of a body corporate, and by said corporate name may have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued and may have and use a common seal.

92. The corporate limits of said town shall be as follows: Beginning at a stone fixed in the earth on the South side of the main road leading through said Town of La Plata from Bryantown to Port Tobacco, which point of beginning is South seventy-eight and one-half ( $78\frac{1}{2}$ ) degrees, west eight hundred and ninety-eight (898) feet from the south meridian stone in the Court House yard, and running thence south five and one-half ( $5\frac{1}{2}$ ) degrees east, continuing and extending with the dividing line between lands of the late William T. Maurice, deceased, and L. Allison Wilmer fifteen hundred and thirty-eight (1538) feet to a set stone; then south eighty-eight (88) degrees east twenty-five hundred and ninety-five (2595) feet to a set stone; then north twenty-nine and one-fourth ( $29\frac{1}{4}$ ) degrees east twenty-five hundred and thirty (2530) feet to a stone on the north side of the aforementioned main