Chief Bailiff.

SEC. 10. The Chief Bailiff shall be vested and clothed with all the power and authority of a constable, and any one resisting him or interfering with him in the discharge of his duties shall be liable, upon conviction in the Circuit Court for Frederick County, or before the Police Justice of the Town of Brunswick, in the same manner and to the same extent as if he had resisted a constable; he shall assist the Mayor in the enforcement of the ordinances, and to that end it shall be his duty to make complaint to the Police Justice against any and every person violating any ordinance of the town; he shall be executive officer of the Mayor and Council, and shall serve, deliver or post any order or notice that under any law or ordinance of the Town or under this Charter is to be served, delivered or posted, and all returns made by the Chief Bailiff to the Mayor, the Council or the Mayor and Council shall have the same force and effect, and be entitled to and receive the same credence as a return of a sheriff to any process in the Circuit Courts of this State; it shall be his duty, as a peace officer, to maintain and preserve peace, good order and good conduct within the limits of said Town and among all persons found therein; he shall repress, prevent and put down disorderly conduct and all disturbances of the public peace, breaches of the peace, gambling of all kinds; the unlawful sale of intoxicating drinks and any and all other unlawful and criminal acts and conduct whatsoever within the corporate limits of said town. Upon the application of the Chief Bailiff and upon information and oath of such officer or upon the information and oath of any other person, the Police Justice of said Town shall issue a warrant of arrest directed to said Chief Bailiff commanding him to make the arrest of the person or persons named in the information, and said officer shall execute and return said warrant or writ. If any crime or offense against the laws shall be committed in the presence of the Chief Bailiff he shall arrest the offender without warrant, and if between sunset on one day and sunrise on the next day, or at any time on Sunday, the Chief Bailiff has occasion to arrest any person or persons for any offense committed in said Town, whether the offense was committed in the presence of the officer or otherwise, and the Chief Bailiff believes that, under the circumstances, he ought to make the arrest without delay, said
