

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That all acts or parts of Acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1st, Nineteen Hundred and Sixteen.

Approved April 11th, 1916.

CHAPTER 466.

AN ACT to authorize and direct the County Commissioners of Allegany County, Maryland, to levy at the annual levy for the year 1916, the sum of thirty-seven hundred and seventeen dollars and forty-four cents ($3,717.44), and to pay the same to the sureties on the bond of James Schuyler, State and County Tax Collector for Allegany County, for the years 1901, 1902 and 1903, which sum said sureties paid to the said County Commissioners by mistake.

WHEREAS, The said James Schuyler, was State and County Tax Collector for Allegany County for the years 1901, 1902 and 1903, and failed to pay over the sum of thirty-seven hundred and seventeen dollars and forty-four cents ($3,717.44), to the said Allegany County, and the said County Commissioners, having called upon the said sureties to make good the said default, the said sureties paid the said sum of thirty-seven hundred and seventeen dollars and forty-four cents ($3,717.44), to the Treasurer of said County under a mistaken impression and without the authority of the said tax collector, and without suit having been brought, and without giving the said James Schuyler, tax collector aforesaid, the opportunity to defend and explain the said default; and,

WHEREAS, It is now learned that the said James Schuyler was then entitled to certain allowances for insolvencies and mistakes in assessments sufficient to cover the said amount for which he was in default. Now, therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the County Commissioners of Allegany County be, and they are hereby authorized and directed at the annual levy for 1916 in Allegany County, to levy the sum of thirty-seven hundred and seventeen dollars and forty-four