

CHAPTER 485.

(Vetoed.)

CHAPTER 486.

AN ACT to amend Article 4, of the Code of Public Laws of Maryland, entitled, "City of Baltimore" by the addition thereto of three new Sections, relating to the keepers of junk shops, and second-hand dealers and their employees, in the City of Baltimore, and prescribing a penalty for the violation of the provisions of said Sections.

Be it enacted, That Article 4 as codified and compiled under the direction of S. S. Field, City Solicitor, in the year 1915, be and the same is hereby amended by the addition thereto of three new Sections to follow immediately after Section 663q of said codification in said Article 4, in the year, 1915, all of said new Sections hereby added to be preceded by the sub-title, "Keepers of Junk Shops, and Second-Hand Dealers and the Employees of the same," said new Sections so added to be numbered respectively, 663r, 663s and 663t of said Article 4 and to read respectively as follows:

Section 663r. It shall be unlawful for any keeper, owner, proprietor or employee of any junk shop within the City of Baltimore, or for any owner, proprietor or employee of any second-hand store within said City to barter, purchase, exchange, buy or accept from any person whatsoever, except plumbers holding licenses as such, or the owner or owners of buildings from which the material is taken, any pipe, faucet, boilers, spigots, coils, lead, solder, copper, alloys of metals or manufactures of metals, tin plate, or any other like material whatever, or to barter, purchase, exchange, buy, receive or accept any other second-hand goods, wares, or merchandise of any kind or nature whatever, without providing and keeping books, and making therein at the time of such purchase, exchange, receiving or accepting, the entries hereinafter provided.

Section 663s. Every owner of such junk shops and second-hand stores shall provide and constantly keep a book, in which shall be fairly written down in the English language, at the time of every purchase of any such material, a description of