

law. No persons shall be allowed to vote in any election in said town except those persons whose names shall appear upon the register of voters in the ward where such persons shall offer to vote and who shall be actual residents as hereinafore defined of said town upon the day of the election. The Mayor and Common Council shall annually appoint four Judges and two Clerks, who shall themselves be registered voters, to conduct the election in each of said wards. The polls shall be open from the hour of nine o'clock A. M. to the hour of seven o'clock P. M., when they shall be closed and no ballots shall be deposited in the ballot box after that time. The said judges and clerks shall conduct such elections, canvass the ballots and certify the results in the manner prescribed by the General Election Laws of this State for State and County Elections, except that said Judges and Clerks shall within twenty-four hours after the closing of the polls in each Election deliver into the hands of the Mayor one certificate or return of the result of the canvass of the ballots cast in the election together with one tally sheet and shall deliver another certificate or return of the result of said canvass together with the other tally sheet into the hands of the chairman of the Council but shall deliver the ballot box containing the ballots, properly sealed, to the Clerk of the Council in person.

Section 2E. That the registration officers and Judges of election herein provided for and each of them shall have and exercise all the power and authority now vested in registration officers and Judges of Election, under the General Election and Registration Laws of this State, to administer oaths, keep the peace, to cause any person to be arrested for any breach of the peace or for any breach of the election laws or any interference with the progress of any registration, election or canvass of the ballots; and it shall be the duty of all officers of the law to obey the order of any registration officer or Judge of Election, and an officer making an arrest by direction of any registration officer or Judge of Election shall be protected in so doing as fully as if a warrant had been issued to him to make such arrest, and such registration officers, Judges and Clerks of Election shall be liable to all the penalties now imposed upon registration officers and
