

CHAP. 114.

Oath required

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners before they proceed to act, shall take an oath or affirmation before some justice of the peace, that they will without favour, partiality or prejudice, assess the damages sustained by the person through whose land the said road may pass.

CHAPTER 114.

Passed Feb. 23, 1837.

An act to provide for changing the place of holding the Elections in the Sixth Election District of Prince George's County.

Preamble

WHEREAS, sundry persons residing within the sixth election district of Prince George's county, have memorialized the Legislature for the purpose of having the elections in said district held at another place than that now established by law,—Therefore,

Commissioners to ascertain and establish places

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Thomas Berry, Notley Maddox, Richard Young, Ebsworth Bayne, and Mareer D. Sooper, or a majority of them, or a majority of the survivors of them, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners to ascertain and establish a place for holding the elections in the sixth election district of Prince George's county, as nearly central as practicable, having regard to the extent of said district and the convenience and accommodation of the people attending said polls, and the said commissioners, or a majority of them, or a majority of the survivors of them, shall on or before the fifteenth day of July next make out and deliver to the clerk of Prince George's county, a description, in writing under their hands and seals, of the place which they may select for holding the elections in said district, and the said clerk shall record the same in the records of said county.

Return and record directedMeeting—ad-journments

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, or a majority of the survivors of them, shall meet at such place within said district as they may select, for the purpose of performing the duties imposed by this act, and may adjourn from time to time until their duties shall be discharged.