

- CHAP. 141. immorality, within the limits of said corporation, and shall have power to lay an ad valorem tax on the property within the limits of said town, to such amount as may from time to time be deemed necessary to accomplish the purposes aforesaid; provided, that said taxes shall not exceed twenty five cents on every hundred dollars worth of taxable property in any one year, which tax shall be collected and paid to the said Burgess and Commissioners by a collector by them appointed, who shall have the same power to destrain therefor as the collector of the public county assessment, has to destrain for taxes, and that the said Burgess and Commissioners shall fix the term of office, responsibility and compensation of such collector.
- Of Taxes
- Collector
- Treasurer      SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the said Burgess shall be treasurer for the said corporation, and shall give bond to said corporate body with security to be approved by the commissioners or a majority of them in such penalty as they shall fix. conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duty as treasurer, and he shall receive and pay away according to the ordinances to be passed by the said commissioners or a majority of them.
- Bond
- Boundaries      SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the said corporation shall be contained in the following meets and bounds, to wit: begining in the middle of the turnpike, east of the town, and at a point south, nine degrees forty minutes east, of thirty feet distant from a stone on the north side of the turnpike marked 82 M. to B. running first, north nine degrees and forty minutes, west sixty poles to a stone marked number two; second, south eighty degrees twenty minutes, west parallel with the lower end of the main street of clear spring, two hundred poles, to a stone marked number three, thence third, south nine degrees forty minutes, east one hundred and fifty poles to a stone marked number four, thence fourth, north eighty degrees twenty minutes east, two hundred poles to a stone marked number five, thence fifth, nine degrees forty minutes, west ninety poles to the place of beginning.