

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That every person or persons who shall feel or conceive him, her, or themselves aggrieved by any judgment of condemnation so as aforesaid rendered, shall be entitled to appeal to the next county court in the same manner as appeals are now taken from magistrates' judgments, and in every case of appeal from any such judgment as aforesaid, the vessel so as aforesaid seized shall be retained by the said constable, or may be delivered over to the said owner or owners, upon his, her or their entering into bond to the State of Maryland, with a penalty of twice the value of said vessel with security or securities to be approved of by the said justice, and it shall be the duty of said county court at which said appeal shall be taken, to hear and determine said cause according to the provisions of this law and the equity and right of the matter.

CHAP. 151.
Appeal provided

Security required

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the county courts of this State to give this act in charge to the grand juries in the several counties at each and every term of said courts; provided, that the citizens of Anne Arundel and Baltimore counties be, and they are hereby declared to be exempt from the operation and effect of this act.

To be given in charge

CHAPTER 151.

An act to authorise the Commissioners of Anne Arundel County, to levy a sum of money for the payment of a Clerk to the Commissioners of Primary Schools. Passed Mar. 9. 1837.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Commissioners of Anne Arundel county, and they are hereby authorised to levy annually, upon the assessable property of Anne Arundel county, a tax not exceeding one hundred dollars, to be paid to the clerk that may be appointed by the commissioners of Primary Schools of said county, as an annual compensation for his services.

Levy authorised.