

eighteen hundred and thirty-two, chapter two hundred and fifty-seven, entitled, an act for the re-assessment and re-valuation of the real and personal property in Prince George's county, and if any person or persons shall apprehend themselves injured by said valuation and assessment of his, her or their property, and shall thereof complain to the said levy court, they shall at the time of their sitting to hear appeals and make transfers, examine any person on oath or affirmation touching the particulars and value of said property, and upon due examination or knowledge thereof, abate or increase the said valuation, and shall cause their clerk to alter and correct the same according to such abatement or increase; provided, the party complaining as aforesaid, shall pay and defray all the cost and expenses attending such appeal or transfer.

CHAP. 162.

Examine on oath

Abate or increase

Cost of appeal

CHAPTER 162.

An act, entitled, an act relating to the Election Districts in Baltimore County.

Passed Mar. 10
1837.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all that part of the sixth election district in said county, not included within the limits of Carroll county, commencing at the point where the north line of Carroll county intersects the line of the fifth election district of Baltimore county, and running with said line until it intersects what is usually denominated the black rock road, and running with said road until it intersects the north line of the fifth election district aforesaid, shall be included in and form a part of the fifth election district, and that all the remainder of the sixth election district aforesaid not included within the limits of Carroll county, shall be attached to and form a part of the thirteenth election district, and it shall and may be lawful for all voters residing within the limits of said district as now designated, to vote at the place of holding elections in said districts, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Election districts regulated