

CHAPTER 168.

CHAP. 169.

An act to divorce Sarah Richards, of the city of Baltimore, from her husband Isaiah Richards. Passed Mar. 10, 1837.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Divorce That Sarah Richards, of the city of Baltimore, be and she is hereby divorced, a mensa et thoro, from her husband Isaiah Richards.

CHAPTER 169.

An act for the better regulation of the School Districts in the upper election district of Caroline county, so far as relates to the school district number three. Passed Mar. 10, 1837.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, by the petition of sundry citizens of the school district number three, in the upper election district of Caroline county, that they labor under great inconvenience from the smallness of their said school district, which renders them altogether unable to conform to the law of eighteen hundred and thirty-one, and the several supplements thereto, for the distribution of the donation to colleges and academies, and the application of the charity school fund in the several counts of this State, for remedy whereof,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Thomas Burchenal, Thomas Clendenning, George Newlee, Abraham Jump and Parrot Roe, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners, who, or a majority of whom, are hereby authorised and directed to proceed on or before the tenth day of June next, to review the school district number three, in the upper election district of Caroline county, and make such alterations and enlargements of the same as they in their judgment may deem expedient and necessary, without infringing too much on the interests of the adjoining school districts, so as to increase the number of scholars, and entitle it to the provisions of the act of Assembly passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, and the several supplements thereto, and make return of such alteration, if

Commissioners to review and alter

Make return