

shall continue in full force for one year and not more from the passage of this act. CHAP. 189.

CHAPTER 188.

An act for the relief of James Polk, Register of Wills of Somerset county. Passed Mar. 15, 1837.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, May bond prior to 1st May next
 That it shall and may be lawful for James Polk, register of wills of Somerset county, to renew his bond as register aforesaid with sufficient sureties on or before the first day of May next, and not afterwards, and the orphans' court are hereby directed to approve or reject the same in the same manner they might or could have done if the said bond had been renewed and presented to them at the time fixed by law for the renewal of registers bonds, and the said bond when so executed and approved, shall have the same effect in law as if the same had been renewed at the fall term of Somerset county court, and the said James Polk is hereby relieved from any penalties which may have been incurred by his neglect to execute the same; provided, the said bond, in addition to the usual conditions, shall contain one covering all delinquencies which may have occurred since the time when it should have been renewed. Made valid
Penalties released
Proviso

CHAPTER 189.

An act to authorise the commissioners of the tax of Talbot county to levy a sum of money for the repairs of the Court House of said county. Passed Mar. 15, 1837.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Levy authorized
 That the commissioners of the tax for Talbot county, be, and they are hereby authorised and directed to levy on the assessable property of said county at the time of making the next annual levy, such sum or sums of money as they in their discretion shall believe necessary for the purpose of repairing the court house in said county; provided, the same shall not exceed the sum of