CHAPTER 192.

An act supplemental to an act for amending and reducing into system the Laws and Regulations concerning last Wills and Testaments, the duties of Executors, Administrators and Guardians, and the rights of Orphans', and other representatives of deceased persons. Passed Mar. 15, 1837.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of May next, all claims for rent in arrear against deceased persons, for which a distress may be levied by law, after the death of the deceased, shall have preference over all other claims against said deceased's estate, except such as now have a preference over claims for rent in arrear, without the levying of a distress therefor, and the administrator or executor of any deceased person is authorized to pay and discharge such claim for rent in arrear, provided the Orphans' Court of the county shall be satisfied of the justice of said claim, and that a distress therefor might be levied on said deceased's goods and chattels, in the hands of such administrator or executor; and provided also, that nothing in this act contained shall be construed to divest or in any manner impair the right of any person having a claim for rent in arrear against a deceased person, to pursue his Debt for rent in arrear to have
