

CHAPTER 203.

●HAF. 203.

An act relating to the German Reformed Parsonage, in the town of Hagerstown, Washington county. Passed Mar. 17, 1837.

WHEREAS, the several congregations of the German Reformed Church, interested in a certain house and lot in the town of Hagerstown, held in trust for their use as a parsonage, have agreed to make sale of the same; and whereas, it is found difficult to make a conveyance for said property under existing circumstances to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, and the consistories or elderships of said congregations have petitioned this Legislature for the passage of a law empowering trustees to make said conveyance. Therefore:

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Wise and Daniel Zeller, of Washington county, be, and they are hereby constituted and appointed trustees with power in them or the survivor of them, to execute a deed of conveyance for a certain house and lot or portion of ground, and the premises, situated in the town of Hagerstown, in Washington county, on West Franklin street, and numbered one hundred and ninety-six, which said house and lot and premises were conveyed by deed of bargain and sale, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of October, seventeen hundred and ninety-three, and recorded on the twenty-sixth day of October of said year, in Liber H. one of the land records of the county aforesaid, to John Weller, Earnest Deir and others, by Maria Saleme Weimar, for a parsonage for the use of the German Reformed Congregation in said deed named; the deed to be executed, under and by virtue of this act of Assembly, by said trustees or the survivor of them, to be made to the person or persons and for the uses and estate, with whom and for which the eldership or consistories of the several congregations interested, under the directions of said congregations, may have contracted or shall hereafter contract, and to be fully and completely effectual to convey the title to said property to the grantee or grantees thereof; provided, said deed be executed and acknowledged by said trustees or trustee, and recorded among the land records of Washing-
