

of little value and likely to become a nuisance to the said town, therefore:

CHAP. 251.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Grant
That all the right, title, interest and estate which the State of Maryland has or might make claim to, in and to the said lot of ground, is hereby released and granted to the commissioners of Chestertown and their successors, to be used by the said commissioners in the improvement and for the benefit of said town.

CHAPTER 251.

An act for the relief of Edward Hines, late of Kent Passed Mar. 7, county. 1837.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Insolvent
That the judges of Kent county court be required to grant a final discharge to Edward Hines, late of Kent county, an insolvent debtor, if they shall be satisfied that his personal discharge or notice to creditors, signed by George S. Hollyday, one of the justices of the orphans' court of Kent county, shall have been published in the Kent Bugle, a newspaper printed in Kent county once a week, commencing on the seventh day of January, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, and ending on the publication day of the said newspaper next preceeding the first Wednesday after the third Monday of March, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, and provided, they shall also be satisfied that the said Edward Hines shall have complied with all the other requisites of the acts of Assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors.