CHAP. 253. thorised, shall be available in law, and have effect and operation in all respects in the same manner as if said several portions of Carroll county were still within their respective bailiwicks, and that the responsibilities of said sheriffs respectively shall be co-extensive with the power and authority hereby conferred upon them by this act.

CHAPTER 253.

Passed Feb. 15, 1837.

An act to make valid a deed from Benjamin Sanders and Wife, to William Lamb, of Kent County.

Deed defined

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the deed executed on the eleventh day of April, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, by Benjamin Sanders, otherwise called Benjamin V. Sanders, and Deborah Sanders, his wife, of Carrollton, Green county, in the State of Illinois, conveying to William Lamb, of Kent county, and his heirs and assigns, the undivided one-twelfth part of all the lands and tenements, and real estate, lying in Kent county, Maryland, of which Benjamin Vickers, of the said last mentioned county and State, died, seized or possessed or entitled to, as therein particularly described, and which is recorded in Liber J. N. G. number four, pages two hundred and fifty-five, two hundred and fifty-six, two hundred and fifty-seven, two hundred and fifty-eight, and two hundred and fifty-nine, one of the land record books for Kent county, by Joseph N. Gordan clerk, and duly acknowledged before, and certified by Stephen T. Logan, a judge of the first judicial district, and of the circuit court for Greene county, in the State of Illinois, and authenticated by the certificate of the Governor of the said State, the seal of the said State, and the attestation of the secretary of State, on the twentieth day of April, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, be, and the same is hereby made as effectual and valid in law and equity to all intents and purposes whatever, as if the same had been duly certified and attested by the clerk or keeper of the records of the court of which the said Stephen T. Logan was judge, and according to the requisitions of the act

Confirmed