entitled thereto, the damages respectively awarded to them; and shall also within thirty days after the construction of any such track or part of a track make proper crossings at such places as shall have been designated as aforesaid.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That if any road, laid out under the provisions of this act, shall pass over or through any quarry, it shall upon the application of the owners of said quarry, and after one-third of the quantity of stone in the same may have been taken therefrom, be the duty of the county court, levy court or county commissioners, under whose authority the same may have been laid out, to have the location of the said road changed in such manner as to avoid interfering with the working of such quarry.

Quarries protected

CHAPTER 256.

An act to make valid a deed from William C. Poole and Mary Matilda Poole, of Charleston, South Carolina, to James Mansfield, Junior, of Kent county, Maryland.

Passed Mar. 2, 1837.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the deed executed on the eleventh day of January in the year eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, by William C. Poole and Mary Matilda Poole, his wife, of Charleston, South Carolina, conveying to James Mansfield, Junior, of Kent county, Maryland, and his heirs and assigns, lots or parts of land lying in Chestertown in the county aforesaid, distinguished on the plot of said town by the numbers, forty-three and forty four, and as therein particularly mentioned and described, and duly and legally acknowledged before and certified by Josiah J. Evans, a judge of the court of law in South Carolina, and the qualifications of said judge duly certified and attested by the Governor of South Carolina, the seal of the said State, and the signature of the Secretary of State, be and the same is hereby made as effectual and valid in law and in equity to all intents and purposes whatever, as if the same had been acknowledged, certified and authenticated in all respects as required by the act of Assembly of Mary-

Deed made valid