CHAPTER 267.

An act to confirm an act, entitled, an act to repeal all such parts of the Constitution and Form of Government, as relates to the division of Cecil County into four separate Election Districts. Passed Mar. 20, 1837.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Confirmation
That an act of Assembly, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter two hundred and fifty-nine, entitled, an act, to repeal all such parts of the Constitution and Form of Government, as relates to the division of Cecil county, into four separate election districts, be, and the same is hereby ratified and confirmed.

CHAPTER 268.

A supplement to an act, passed at December Session, eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter three hundred and thirty-nine, entitled, an act for the relief of John Reynolds, and others of Washington County. Passed Mar. 20, 1837.

WHEREAS, in consequence of a decision by the Court of Appeals, made at its present session, the said court have declined to take jurisdiction in the cases mentioned in the original act, to which this is a supplement, by reason of which the benefits intended to be conferred by said act, have been wholly lost to the parties in the cases mentioned; and whereas, for the reasons set forth in the preamble to said original act, it is important to have a prompt and speedy determination of the controversy therein referred to,—Therefore;

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That whenever after a final decision made by the Chancellor in said cases, the appellant shall have transcript of the record, transmitted to the Court of Appeals, it shall then be the duty of said court to hear Preamble
Trial at first term by consent authorised
