CHAP. 282.

CHAPTER 281.

A supplement to an act to incorporate the contributors of the Somerset Savings Institution, at Princess Anne, passed at December Session eighteen hundred and thirty-two.

Passed Mar. 21,
1837.

WHEREAS, the Somerset Savings Institution has not been carried into operation and therefore doubts may exist whether the charter is not forfeited by non user;—Therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be lawful for the persons named in the said charter, and all other persons who may become contributors to the Somerset Savings Institution, to organize said Institution, and the said charter is hereby revived, and shall continue in force until the end of the year eighteen hundred and sixty, and until the end of the first session of the General Assembly thereafter.

Charter extended to 1860

CHAPTER 282.

An act for the relief of Thomas Goulden.

Passed Mar. 20
1837.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Judges of Washington County Court, or any one of them, be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to grant to Thomas Goulden, the benefit of the several acts of Assembly passed for the relief of Insolvent Debtors; provided, that the said Thomas Goulden, shall in all respects, except that of proving residence, comply with the requisitions of said acts of Assembly, and that he satisfy the said judges, that he did not come into this State, with a view of obtaining the benefit of said Insolvent Laws.
