

CHAP. 289. Israel Creek, then with said creek to the line dividing the farms owned by Messrs. John Clempson and John Miller, then with said line to Mr. John Crumbough's line, East of his farm, then with a straight line to the beginning, and that the taxable limits of the said town shall be as follows: including all that part of the town now improved, or which the citizens may at any time hereafter improve, in accordance with the eleventh section of this act; provided, that in no instance it may exceed the corporate limits as laid down in this section.

CHAPTER 300.

Passed Mar 21, 1837, An act to provide for a further loan to the Penitentiary.

Loan authoris- ed SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the directors of the Penitentiary shall be authorised and directed to borrow, on or before the first day of July next, on the credit of the State, under the advice and direction of the commissioner of loans for the State of Maryland, at a rate of interest not exceeding six per cent, and on the most favorable terms upon which the same can be obtained, a sum of money not exceeding twenty thousand dollars, for the use of the Penitentiary, and may borrow the same either from any of the chartered banks, or other corporations, or from individuals, which loan shall be redeemable at the expiration of twenty years; provided, that the said directors shall advertise in two or more newspapers in the cities of Annapolis and Baltimore, for proposals for said loan, at least fifteen days previously to contracting for the same.

$20,000

Redeemable
Notice

Bonds or certificates to issue

Interest payable

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the Treasurer of the Western Shore is hereby authorised and directed to issue bonds or certificates as evidence of said loan, and to pledge the credit of the State for the repayment of the same, to the amount of not more than twenty thousand dollars as aforesaid, and as may have been devised and consented to by the said commissioner of loans, the interest thereof shall be paid semi-annually, by the directors of the Penitentiary, out of the profits of the labour thereof to the Treasurer of, the Western Shore, together with the further sum of one thousand dollars