

RESOLUTIONS.

1836.

No. 58.

Resolution authorising Dr. Dennis Claude, George G. Brewer and David Ridgely, to cause to be constructed under the hall of the House of Delegates, a furnace for warming said hall by means of heated air. Passed Mar. 20, 1837.

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Dr. Dennis Claude, George G. Brewer, and David Ridgely, or any two of them, be authorised and empowered to cause to be constructed, under the hall of the House of Delegates, a furnace for warming said hall by means of heated air: That such furnace shall be of sufficient power to heat the said hall, its committee room, and the room occupied by the Court of Appeals, to any desirable degree of warmth in the coldest weather; and that they cause to be constructed all necessary flues and other fixtures which may be necessary for warming in the best manner the said hall and its committee room, and that they cause said furnace to be so constructed as that flues can be conducted therefrom into the room occupied by the Court of Appeals, whenever it may be advisable to warm said room by means of said furnace: That said furnace shall be constructed upon the best plan, and of the best materials and workmanship: That they shall take from the person, with whom they may contract for the erection of said furnace, a bond to the State of Maryland in the penalty of one thousand dollars with security to be by them approved, conditioned for the proper construction and performance of said furnace, and they are hereby authorised to draw on the Treasurer of the Western Shore for the amount of the entire cost of said furnace, provided the same, including excavation and every other charge and expense, shall not exceed six hundred dollars.
