

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

| | chap. | Sec. |
|--|--------------|-------------|
| judges, time, place and manner of holding elections for senators and delegates, making returns thereof, and the division of counties into election districts, &c. | 197 | 12 |
| CONSTITUTION, &c. —but not to effect the tenure of office, | ” | 12 |
| The Council to the Governor abolished, | ” | 13 |
| And the clerk to the Council, | ” | ” |
| The whole executive power of the government vested exclusively in the Governor, subject to the limitations hereinafter specified, | ” | ” |
| The Governor, by, and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint all officers, whose offices are created by law, and whose appointment is not otherwise provided for by the constitution, &c. | ” | 14 |
| This provision not to effect the commissions of persons in office, when this act goes into effect, | ” | ” |
| The Governor shall have power to fill any vacancy in such office, during the recess of the senate, | ” | 15 |
| Commissions in such case shall expire upon the appointment of the same or some other person to the same office, by, and with the advice of the senate, or in one month after the commencement of the next regular session of the senate, which ever first happens, | ” | ” |
| The same person shall not after rejection by the senate be again nominated during the same session, to the same office, unless the senate signify by message their willingness to receive such re-nomination, | ” | 16 |
| Nor shall the person so rejected be appointed to such office during the recess of the senate, | ” | ” |
| The Governor shall within one month after this act shall go into operation, &c. and annually thereafter, during the regu- | | |