

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

	Chap.	Sec.
the election and qualification of a successor,	197	20
CONSTITUTION, &c. —Persons entitled to vote for delegates, &c. should be entitled to vote for Governor,	”	”
The person voted for as Governor shall possess the qualifications now required by the constitution,	”	”
And the additional qualification of being at least thirty years of age, and of being and having been at least three whole years before, a resident within the gubernatorial district, &c.	”	”
The State divided into three gubernatorial districts, and provisions for numbering them,	”	”
The legislature shall have power by law to regulate all matters in relation to the Judges, time, place, and manner of holding elections for Governor, and of making returns thereof, not affecting the tenure and term of office thereby,	”	21
The returns of the election of Governor, except otherwise ordered, shall be made in like manner as in elections for Electors of President and Vice-President of the United States, save that the form of certificates shall be varied to suit the case, and that the returns instead of being made to the Governor and Council, shall be made to the President of the Senate, enclosed under cover to the Secretary of State, by whom they shall be delivered, &c.	”	”
Of the persons voted for as Governor, the person having in the judgment of the Senate, the highest number of votes, and possessing the legal qualifications, &c. shall be Governor, and shall qualify, &c. on the first Monday in January next ensuing his election, &c.	”	22
All questions in relation to the legality of votes given for, of qualification of, &c.		