

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

	Chap.	Sec.
cord said commissions in books for the purpose, and afterwards deliver the original to the justices &c.	275	5
MAGISTRATES COURTS ,—Further supplement to the act to establish, in the several counties of this State &c.	505
May summon witnesses residing in different counties, to testify on trials before &c.	"	1
Such summons to be directed to constable residing in the district in which such court is held,	"	"
And returned to the court before which trial is had,	"	"
Witnesses so summoned, liable to attachment and fine for non attendance, as if residing in the county,	"	2
In all cases tried before a single justice of the peace, either party may appeal to the county court or district court,	"	3
Case so removed shall be tried de novo ,	"	"
Appeal may be refused unless costs are paid which have occurred,	"	4
Associate justice, when presiding in, shall be entitled to the per diem now allowed to chief justice,	"	5
Parties to any suit before, may appear in person, by attorney, or by agent,	"	6
Regulating appearances,	"	"
In case of sale of real estate by process of, the chief justice of, shall place in the hands of the clerk of the county court, all the papers and proceedings in the case, within six months &c.	"	7
Duty of the clerk to record,	"	"
The record to be legal evidence,	"	"
When any two justices are interested in any matter pending before &c., the remaining justice shall hold jurisdiction &c.	"	8
If all three be interested, any neighbouring district court shall have jurisdiction of the case,	"	9
MAGRUDER, ISAAC G. —Late collector of Prince		