

the law of the land, or which they may hereafter do and perform as justices of the peace, before the appointment and commissioning by the Executive of Maryland, of justices of the peace for Carroll county, shall be as valid and binding to all intents and purposes whatever, if in other respects legal, as if the said justices at the time of doing and performing said act had been in fact specially appointed and commissioned justices of the peace for Carroll county since its establishment by law.

CHAPTER 69.

An act to alter and change part of the divisional line between the fourth and fifth Election Districts in Dorchester County. Passed Feb. 18, 1837.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Line changed
That the south-western end of the divisional line between the fourth and fifth election districts, leading from Keene's cross roads to Jones' bridge, commonly called the Great Marsh bridge, in Dorchester county, be and the same is hereby altered and changed, and that after the passage of this act, the end of the aforesaid divisional line shall run from the said Keene's cross roads, with a straight line, to a place called Burton's Landing, and from thence south-west, until it shall intersect the line of the sixth election district in said county, any law to the contrary, notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 70.

A supplement to an act, entitled, an act relating to Insolvent Debtors in the City and County of Baltimore, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and sixteen, chapter two hundred and twenty-one. Passed Feb. 20, 1837.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Legal knowledge dispensed with That so much of the act of Assembly, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and sixteen, chapter two hundred and twenty-one, as restricts the