

CHAPTER 76.

CHAP. 77.

An act to confirm an act, entitled, an act to alter and amend the Constitution and Form of Government of this State, so far as it relates to the representation in the House of Delegates, from the City of Baltimore. Passed Jan. 6, 1837.

WHEREAS, at a session of the General Assembly, begun and held at the city of Annapolis, on the twenty eighth day of December eighteen hundred and thirty five, an act of assembly entitled, an act to alter and amend the Constitution and form of Government of this State, so far as it relates to the representation in the House of Delegates, from the city of Baltimore, was passed to alter and repeal those parts of the Constitution and form of Government which are therein mentioned: and whereas the said act of assembly hath been published in due form for the space of three months next before the late general election of Delegates to the House of Delegates, according to the provisions of the constitution and form of government, and this General Assembly hereby intend to confirm the said act;

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said act entitled, an act to alter and amend the Constitution and form of Government of this State, so far as it relates to the representation in the House of Delegates, from the city of Baltimore, be, and it is hereby confirmed and made valid to every intent and purpose therein mentioned.

CHAPTER 77.

An act to provide for taking the sense of the people of Baltimore County, on the propriety of separating said County from the City of Baltimore. Passed Jan. 7, 1837.

WHEREAS, it hath been represented to this General Assembly, that the convenience of the people of Baltimore county would be promoted, and the administration of justice in said county, be rendered more speedy and efficient, if the said county were separated