

ty court, within the period of one week next succeeding the day of holding said election; and to forward two copies of such certificate, under cover, to the Clerk of the Council, one of which said copies shall be addressed to the Speaker of the House of Delegates, and the other of which said copies shall be addressed to the President of the Senate.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all and so many of said ballots as shall have thereon, written or printed, the word "separation," or the words "in favor of separation," shall be reckoned and considered as votes in favor of the proposed separation of said county from the said city; and all ballots, on which shall be written or printed, the words "no separation," or the words "against separation," shall be reckoned and considered as votes against the proposed separation of said county from the said city, and shall be certified accordingly by said judge or judges as aforesaid.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all the necessary and incidental expenses which shall be incurred by the Sheriff of Baltimore county, in performance of the duties which are enjoined upon him by this act, and all other necessary and incidental expenses, which shall attend the fulfilment of the provisions of this act, shall be levied, collected and paid over, as the ordinary county charges are levied, collected and paid over.

CHAPTER 78.

An act to authorise and empower Sarah Murray, widow and administratrix of John Murray, late of Baltimore County, deceased, to execute certain conveyances therein mentioned. Passed Jan. 21, 1837.

WHEREAS, it has been represented to this General Assembly, that John Murray, late of Baltimore county, deceased, in his life time contracted with divers persons, by separate and several contracts, for the sale of several pieces or parcels of land, and executed and delivered to the respective purchasers thereof his several bonds of conveyance, conditioned in each case, for the conveyance of the particular piece or parcel of land, in said bond of conveyance mentioned, upon payment of