

mission to use said markers for a period of five days, as provided in Section 147 hereof. In such latter case it shall be the duty of the purchaser to remove said markers promptly at the expiration of such five days and return them either to the original owner of the motor vehicle or to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, and it shall be unlawful for the purchaser or any person other than the person to whom such markers were originally issued to have the same in his possession after the expiration of such five days, whether in use or not; provided, however, that in the case of a transfer of ownership, the original owner may register another motor vehicle under the same number upon payment of a fee of one dollar ($1.00) where such motor vehicle is of less or equal horse-power or tonnage as that originally registered; or upon payment of a fee of one dollar ($1.00) and the difference between the fee originally paid and that due, in case the new motor vehicle be properly registered in a higher class; and provided further that upon such transfer of ownership and the return of such registration certificate and number plates or markers, with the application prescribed for use in such cases, the original owner shall be entitled to a refund of the amount paid for registration markers and certificate on a basis of quarterly periods of use yet remaining.

LICENSE TO OPERATORS.

143. No person shall operate a motor vehicle upon any highway of this State until he first shall have obtained a license for the purpose. The Commissioner shall require an actual demonstration of the qualifications of the person applying for such license, and, in addition, may refuse to issue the same if, in his judgment, the safety of the public would be jeopardized thereby, but said applicant shall have the right to appeal if license is refused, as provided elsewhere in this sub-title. Any person desiring to receive a chauffeur's or motor vehicle operator's license shall first obtain an examination permit or an instruction license upon paying the sum of one dollar ($1.00) to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, which such instruction license shall entitle the person to whom it is issued to operate a motor vehicle only when accompanied by a regularly licensed operator, for a period of thirty days from the date of its issue, at which time it shall
