

sd Sec: 19 obid: be it further enacted, That the retirement board shall cause the system hereby established to be thoroughly examined by a competent actuary or actuaries, once in every three years; and often as is deemed necessary, and may make an actuary, in consultation at any time; and such board is hereby empowered to change the scale of contributions required of teachers, if, deemed advisable, as the result of actuarial experience hereunder; but such changes shall not be effective as to teachers becoming members of the retirement association before the same shall have been made; unless assented to by such members, most of whom are in Sec: 20. And, be it further enacted, That the accounts of the retirement board and the books and accounts of the State Treasurer as custodian of the funds of the retirement system and the cash and securities in his hands representing such funds, shall be examined and audited annually at the time and in the manner prescribed for the annual audit of the accounts of the trustees of the permanent school fund and the accounts of the State Treasurer in connection therewith.

Sec: 21. And, be it further enacted, That the rules and regulations hereby prescribed for the administration of the retirement system hereby created shall be subject to change by the retirement board whenever deemed fit, for the best interests of the entire body of teachers, in the service of the State. The benefits of the retirement system shall be enjoyed by each member of the retirement association as long as he meets all the requirements of this Act and complies with all the rules and regulations of the retirement board.

Sec: 22. And, be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from and after June 1, 1920.

Approved April 9, 1920, in the building of the State Capital, built over sea by the State of Maryland, 1920.

AN ACT to regulate the hunting and shooting of wild fowl on the Potomac River and in Charles and Prince George's Counties, Maryland.

In SECTION 1, Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be unlawful for any person to have a blind more than three hundred yards from the shore on the Potomac River in Charles and Prince George's Counties,