CHAPTER 511.

AN ACT making the fiscal year of the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles and the State Roads Commission coincident with the fiscal year of the State.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That, beginning on October 1, 1920, the fiscal year of the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles and the State Roads Commission shall be coincident with the fiscal year of the State of Maryland, and thereafter the fiscal year of the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles and the State Roads Commission shall begin on October 1 and end on September 30 next.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles and the State Roads Commission are hereby directed to make whatever changes may be necessary in their accounts and books so as to begin the fiscal year as provided in this Act. The reports of the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles and the State Roads Commission to the Governor or to any other authority to whom they are required by law to report shall be made on or before October 31st in each year, beginning in the year 1921.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from and after June 1, 1920.

Approved April 9, 1920.
