

foot charge to be paid by said property owner as though his property abutted upon said water main or sewer; and in the event of such connection being made said property owner and said property, as to all charges, rates and benefits shall stand in every respect in the same position as if the said property abutted upon a water main or sewer. The annual benefit charges as above specified shall be a first lien upon the property against which they are assessed, subject only to prior State, County and Municipal charges, and shall be enforced by a judgment upon the complaint of the Commission before any justice of the peace or the Circuit Court for the County in which said land is situated and usual execution thereon. Service upon the defendant named in said complaint shall be by summons as is usual in debt cases, and in the event said summons shall be returned non est, said Commission may cause an order of the justice of the peace or the Circuit Court to be published in any newspaper in the county in which the land lies, for two successive issues, requiring the defendant, to be named therein, to appear to said complaint at a certain time and place to be named therein, and in default of such appearance, after due proof of publication and proof of the fact that there is due and owing said Commission the amount so claimed the Circuit Court or the justice of the peace before whom said complaint is pending shall enter judgment against said defendant or defendants and tax the costs including the costs of publication, if any. No such benefit charge shall continue as a lien for a period longer than two years from the date upon which the same became in default, unless it is reduced to a judgment and duly recorded among the records of the clerk's office in the County in which said land is situated. Said benefit charge shall be payable at the office of the Commission immediately upon being levied and shall be in default after sixty days from that date; and said benefit charge and any judgment obtained as a result of the default of the payment thereof shall bear interest at the rate of one per cent a month from and after the time said benefit charge is in default.

SEC. 20. And be it further enacted, That all individuals, firms and corporations having buildings, conduits, pipes, tracks or other physical obstructions in, over or under the public roads, streets or alleys of the Sanitary District, or of