

hundred nor more than five hundred dollars; and, if a natural person, shall be imprisoned not less than ten nor more than thirty days in the discretion of the Court; and in the case of any conviction or convictions under this section subsequent to the second; such person or persons, body politic or corporate shall be fined on each occasion at least double that imposed upon him, her, them or it on the last preceding conviction; and, if a natural person, shall be imprisoned not less than thirty nor more than sixty days in the discretion of the Court; all fines to be imposed under this section shall be paid to the State. Provided that in addition to such license fees as may not be payable therefor before any such exhibition shall be given in Baltimore City there shall be paid to the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of Baltimore City, for the use of the State, the following license fees, to wit: There shall be charged for each year a minimum license fee of $100 for any moving picture house with a seating capacity of one hundred people or less and an additional license fee of $1.00 per seat for each and every seat within any such moving picture house having over one hundred seats, up to and including fifteen hundred seating capacity and no more. And, provided further, that the price or charge for admission shall on no occasion, performance or showing of a moving picture be a greater charge on Sunday than that made for admission on week days.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall, at the General Election to be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1920, be submitted to the legal and qualified voters of the City of Baltimore for their approval or rejection.

The Supervisors of Elections of the City of Baltimore shall have printed upon the ballots to be used at the said election in November, 1920, the following proposition:

Shall the present laws be amended to permit motion pictures on Sunday?

After this there shall be printed on the ballot the following:

For Motion Pictures on Sunday

Against Motion Pictures on Sunday

The Supervisors of Elections of the City of Baltimore shall canvass the returns and certify the number of votes cast for and against amending the Sunday laws in like manner as other