

183C. Every company doing a fire, marine or inland insurance business in this State, except such as may be incorporated under the laws of this State, and every fire, marine, inland, fidelity, surety, casualty, liability or compensation company incorporated under the laws of any foreign country, shall pay an annual license fee of one hundred dollars.

183D. Every company incorporated under the laws of this State doing a life, fire or marine insurance business shall pay an annual license fee of one dollar.

183E. Every company doing a title insurance or mortgage guaranty business shall pay an annual license fee of one hundred dollars.

183F. Every insurance company, (including fidelity, surety, casualty, liability, compensation, livestock and miscellaneous companies), except such as may be chartered under the laws of the State of Maryland, shall pay, annually, to the Insurance Commissioner a tax on the gross premiums written in this State, on account of residents thereof, during the preceding year, without deduction for any cause whatsoever except as herein provided, which said tax shall be at the rate of 2% for companies writing fire or marine insurance, and at the rate of 1% for all other such companies. A report under oath of the premiums so written during the preceding year must be made to the Insurance Commissioner in January of each year by the chief accounting officer or officers of such company. The Insurance Commissioner, in computing taxes upon premiums collected in this State by insurance companies, may allow credit for return premiums on cancelled policies and for premiums on reinsurance effected in companies authorized to do business in this State.

183G. Every insurance company doing business in this State shall also pay the following fees to the Insurance Commissioner:

(a) For filing the certified copy of charter, declaration of organization or deed of settlement required by this Article to be filed as a condition precedent to doing business in this State, the sum of Twenty-five Dollars;

(b) For filing each Annual Statement, the sum of Twenty-five Dollars.
