

thorized and empowered to levy annually on every one hundred dollars worth of assessable property in Hagerstown an amount sufficient to meet such deficiency, and the sum of the money collected from said levy shall constitute a part of the aforementioned fund, to be known as the Park Fund, and to be applied to the payment of costs and expenses of conducting and operating said lake and to and for no other purpose whatever. It is hereby expressly provided, however, that this levy shall never be made unless the revenues derived from the operation of said lake shall prove inadequate to pay the necessary expenses of the operation and maintenance of said lake.

SECTION 7. And be it further enacted, That if the revenues derived from the operation of said lake shall at any time exceed the sum of money necessary to pay the costs and expenses of operating and maintaining said lake and making reasonable repairs and improvements thereto, the sum of money remaining on the first day of April in the hands of the Park Commission shall be paid by it to the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown, to be appropriated by said Mayor and Council toward the payment of interest on said bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, and for the redemption of said bonds when due and payable, and when said bonds are paid they shall be forthwith cancelled.

SECTION 8. And be it further enacted, That in addition to the powers expressly conferred by this Act, the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown shall have such other powers as are incident thereto, or a necessary consequence to the powers herein conferred, which shall include the right to pass all ordinances not inconsistent with the powers granted by this Act that may be necessary for the protection and preservation of said lake, or any portion thereof, and to attach reasonable penalties thereto for violations thereof, and from time to time to repeal, alter and amend said ordinance.

SECTION 9. And be it further enacted, That the provisions of this Act shall not become effective unless the same when submitted, as hereinafter provided, to the qualified voters of Hagerstown at the regular municipal election to be held on the fourth Monday in March, 1920, shall be approved as hereinafter stated. The provisions of this Act shall be published in full at least three times in each of the daily newspapers published and circulated in Hagerstown, the first of said publications to be not less than ten days before the time of
