

or highways and into adjacent lands for the purpose of draining that are now possessed by the County Commissioners or Road Commissioners for said county.

SEC. 31. And be it further enacted, That the Town Commissioners are hereby empowered to borrow money for the purpose of public improvements in said town, in such sums as they may deem proper in their discretion, not to exceed in the aggregate the sum of fifteen thousand dollars, such sum or sums of money, to be payable at such times as the said Commissioners may agree upon with the lenders, subject to the limitation hereinafter set forth, and to issue therefor bonds in sums of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars each; each bond to be signed by the president of the said Town Commissioners and countersigned by the clerk thereof, and all of them to be issued at the option of the Commissioners and to bear rate of interest not to exceed six per centum per annum. The interest on said bonds hereby authorized to be payable semi-annually on the first day of January and the first day of July in each year, according to the terms of coupons to be attached thereto, and the coupons thereon, when due, to be receivable for municipal taxes due to the said town of Indian Head, the said Town Commissioners to annually set aside as a sinking fund a sum not less than twenty per cent of the municipal taxes collected as such during each succeeding year, until such bonds as may have been issued by said Commissioners shall mature, as provided in this or any other previous Act, when said fund shall be applied to the liquidation and redemption of the same.

SEC. 32. And be it further enacted, That any person who shall remove, cut down, tear down or otherwise destroy any fence, or any part thereof, or structure used for the purpose of a fence, or any part thereof upon the premises of another, bounding the lands of another, along any public street, highway or alley in said town, whether the same be properly located or not, provided it be not located upon land owned by and in possession of the party committing such act, or his tenant or agent, shall, on conviction, pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars for any such offense, and upon failure to pay the same, together with the costs of prosecution, shall be committed to jail to be confined therein until such fine and costs are paid, or for the period of forty days, whichever shall first occur.