

detectives, not exceeding twenty-five, who shall not be allowed to follow any business or profession, but who shall devote their entire time to the discharge of their duties as detectives; no such lieutenant of detectives shall be eligible to take an examination for the grade of captain until he shall have served ten years as a detective, each and all such detectives to rank as lieutenants with equal opportunities of promotion with other lieutenants; such number of sergeants as the Board of Police Commissioners in their judgment may deem necessary; not to exceed one hundred and eighty-five in number; two additional round sergeants, one of whom shall be assigned as assistant to the superintendent of the police signal and telephone service, and one of whom shall be an experienced machinist, and shall be known as superintendent of machinery, who shall have charge of the mechanical care and repair of the motor vehicles of the Police Department, respectively, and eight hundred and forty-two patrolmen, including the increase in the number of patrolmen authorized by Section 14, Chapter 82, of the Acts of 1918; and such number of clerks for duty at police headquarters as may in the judgment of the Board of Police Commissioners be necessary, not exceeding fifteen. The said police force may be increased at any time if in the opinion of the said Board the public peace shall so require, to any number and for such periods of time as they may think proper by the appointment of special policemen, who shall receive the sum of three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50) per day for their services. The members of the police force shall receive the following salaries, payable every two weeks; the marshal of police shall receive four thousand dollars ($4,000.00) per annum; the deputy marshal of police thirty-five hundred ($3,500.00) dollars per annum; the captain assigned to have charge of the detective office shall receive sixty dollars per week, and each other captain shall receive fifty dollars per week; the lieutenant assigned to have charge of the Bureau of Identification shall receive forty-seven dollars per week; and all other lieutenants and detectives shall each receive forty-three dollars per week; each round sergeant thirty-eight dollars per week; each sergeant thirty-four dollars per week; each turnkey thirty dollars per week; the patrolmen shall receive the salaries provided for in Section 745½ of this Act; each station-house clerk shall receive thirty dollars per week, and each clerk not otherwise provided for in this section shall