

Issuance of Bonds” and “Against Issuance of Bonds,” and the qualified voters of said town, desiring to vote on said question at said election, shall indicate their choice of said propositions by making a cross opposite the proposition for which they desire to cast their vote, and if a majority of the votes so cast are marked “For Issuance of Bonds,” then this Act shall be in full force of law; otherwise, it shall be of no effect. The judges of election shall, immediately after election, certify to the Mayor and Town Council of Oakland the result of said election. The said election herein provided for shall be held in the same manner and under the same regulations as in case of other and regular municipal elections in said town.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That this Act is an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 16, 1920.

CHAPTER 615.

AN ACT to add three new sections to Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title, “Harford County,” sub-title, “Bel Air,” to be known as Sections 121-A, 121-B and 121-C, and to follow immediately after Section 121 of said Article, giving certain additional powers to the town of Bel Air.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That three new sections be and they are hereby added to Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title, “Harford County,” sub-title, “Bel Air,” to be known as Sections 121-A, 121-B and 121-C, to follow immediately after Section 121 of said Article and to read as follows:

121-A. That, in addition to the powers conferred upon said town by its charter, set forth in said Article, title and sub-title, the said town shall have power and authority, and it is hereby authorized and empowered, to levy taxes to the
