

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the said the Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick are hereby authorized and empowered to levy annually taxes upon the assessable property in said city to an amount that they may deem proper for the maintenance of said park. And said the Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick are authorized and empowered to adopt such rules and regulations governing the care, protection and management of said park as it may deem necessary or proper.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the provisions of this Act shall not become effective unless the same, when submitted, as hereinafter provided, to the qualified voters of Frederick, at a special municipal election to be held in said City on the first Tuesday in July, 1920, shall be approved as hereinafter stated. The provisions of this Act shall be published in full at least three times in each of the daily newspapers published in said city, the first of said publications to be not less than ten days before the time of said election. The polling places for such special election shall be fixed in the same manner and by the same officials, and the polls shall be kept open between the same hours prescribed for the holding of the regular municipal elections. There shall be no special registration of voters for such special election, and only those persons whose names are on the lists of voters used at last regular municipal election shall be entitled to vote at the special election herein provided for. The manner of submission shall be as follows, to wit: On the ballot at said special election there shall be printed the words, "For Bonds for Memorial Park," with a blank square opposite at the right, and the words "Against Bonds for Memorial Park," with a blank square opposite at the right. And all voters desiring to vote for the provisions of this Act shall place a cross (X) mark in the square opposite the words "For Bonds for Memorial Park," and all voters desiring to vote against the provisions of this Act shall place a cross (X) mark opposite the words "Against Bonds for Memorial Park." If at the said special election held under the provisions of this Act a greater number of said qualified voters shall vote in favor of said bonds than shall vote against said bonds, then and in that event the provisions of this Act shall immediately go into effect and become operative.
