

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the proceeds of the sale of said bonds shall be used for the purchase of fire apparatus and equipment and for fire protection generally, including the erection of a building, all as in the judgment of said Mayor and Commissioners may seem advisable.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and Commissioners of the Town of Barton be and they are hereby authorized and directed to levy annually on the taxable property of said town a sum of money sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds and to redeem said bonds as they mature and become payable, and said taxes shall be collected in like manner as other taxes in said town, and when collected shall be applied to the payment of the interest on said bonds and to the redemption of said bonds as they mature and become payable.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That until the bonds authorized by this Act have matured and been paid, the tax rate of the town of Barton shall be seventy-five cents (75c) instead of fifty cents (50c), as provided in the charter of said town; provided, however, that when the last of said bonds shall have matured and been paid, the tax rate shall again be fifty cents (50c), as provided in said charter.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the question of issuing said bonds shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the town of Barton at the town election to be held in June, 1920, and upon each ballot there shall be printed the words "For Bond Issue," and "Against Bond Issue." If a majority of those voting thereon shall be in favor of issuing the bonds, then the bonds may be issued in accordance with the provisions of this Act, but if a majority shall be against issuing said bonds, then the bonds shall not be issued and this Act shall be null and void.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 16, 1920.
