

(75%) of all questions asked, and if any applicant shall fail to answer correctly sixty per centum (60%) of the questions on any branch of said examination he or she shall not be entitled to a license.

(c) Any Chiropractor who has complied with the provision of this Act may adjust by hand any articulations of the spinal column, but shall not prescribe for or administer to any person any medicine or drugs now or hereafter included in materia medica, practice major or minor surgery, obstetrics, nor any other branch of medicine, nor practice osteopathy.

SEC. 7. Any person who has practiced Chiropractic for a livelihood in this State not less than five years prior to the passage of this Act; and also any person graduated from any organized school or college of Chiropractic, who has been engaged in actual and bona fide practice as a Chiropractic in this State, for at least two years prior to the taking effect of this Act; and also any person engaged in the actual practice of Chiropractic in this State, at the time of the passage of this Act and who is a graduate of a legally incorporated Chiropractic school or college giving a two-year course requiring actual attendance in class work, upon proper application and due proof of good moral character, furnished to said board within thirty (30) days after the organization of said board, and verified, showing that said applicant comes within either of said three classes herein, shall upon the payment of the fee of twenty-five ($25.00) dollars be granted a license to practice Chiropractic without examination.

SEC. 8. (a) The State Board of Chiropractic Examiners may refuse to grant or may revoke a license to practice Chiropractic in this State, or may cause a licentate's name to be removed from the records in the office of the recorder of deeds of this State upon any of the following grounds, to wit: The employment of fraud or deception in applying for a license or in passing an examination provided for in this Act, the practice of Chiropractic under a false or assumed name, or the impersonation of another practitioner of like or different name, the conviction of a crime involving moral turpitude, habitual intemperance in the use of ardent spirits, narcotics or stimulants to such an extent as to incapacitate him or her for the performance of his or her professional duties. Any person who is a licentate, or who is an appli-