

said polling place; the Mayor of the City of Annapolis shall, at least twenty days before the day of election, designate the location of said polling place, and he shall also appoint two judges and one clerk of election for said polling place, who shall be residents of and voters in the portion of Anne Arundel County described in Section A of this Act; one of which said judges shall be a person known to be in favor of "City Extension" and one of which said judges shall be a person known to be against "City Extension;" the polls at said election shall be kept open from eight o'clock in the morning until seven o'clock in the evening; the ballots to be cast at the said election shall have written or printed on them "For the City Extension" and "Against the City Extension" with a square opposite each, and the voter shall designate his choice by making a cross mark in the square opposite one or the other of said printed or written words; if a person offering to vote is not a registered voter he or she shall satisfy said judges that he or she is a taxpayer on property within said territory; at the close of said polls the judges of election shall count the ballots which have been cast, and shall ascertain the number of votes cast "Against the City Extension" and the number cast "For City Extension," and shall make out under their hands, attested by the clerk, three distinct statements or certificates of the number of votes cast "For the City Extension" and "Against the City Extension," one of which certificates shall be entered on each of the poll books used at the said election, and the other one of said certificates shall be by the said judges delivered to the Mayor of the City of Annapolis, who shall ascertain the result of the votes cast at the several voting places, and make known the same by his proclamation; and if a majority of all the votes cast at the said election were cast for the City Extension, therefrom and after the first day of July, 1920, all that portion of Anne Arundel County described in Section 28 A of this Act shall become and be a part of the City of Annapolis. Each of said judges and clerk of election shall, before entering upon their duties make oath or affirmation before a Notary Public of Anne Arundel County, which oath shall be returned to the Mayor of the City of Annapolis and a record kept by him, that he will faithfully and honestly conduct said election and protect it to the best of his ability against all frauds and unfairness; any violation of the terms of said oath shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and shall