

on conviction, subject the offender to punishment by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for not less than one month nor more than six months, or to both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. The said judges of election shall return the ballots and the said poll books to the Mayor of the City of Annapolis within twenty-four hours after the closing of said polls.

SECTION 28 D. And be it further enacted, That the question of whether that portion of Anne Arundel County described in Section 28 B of this Act shall be annexed to and become a part of the City of Annapolis, shall be submitted to the qualified registered voters residing within the said portion of Anne Arundel County, and the taxpayers on property embraced therein, at a special election to be held for this purpose on the fourth Tuesday in June, 1920, for which election there shall be one polling place in the territory described in Section 28 B of this Act, and all persons entitled to vote at said election shall vote at said polling place, and all the provisions contained in Section 28 C of this Act for the holding of the special election therein mentioned, and for ascertaining and declaring the result thereof, shall be applicable to the election to be held under this section, except that the judges and clerk shall be residents of and voters in that portion of Anne Arundel County described in Section 28 B of this Act; and if it shall appear by the proclamation of the Mayor of the City of Annapolis, so to be issued, that a majority of all the votes cast at the election provided for in this section were cast for the City Extension, therefrom and after the first day of July, 1920, all that part of Anne Arundel County described in Section 28 B of this Act shall become and be a part of the City of Annapolis.

SECTION 28 E. And be it further enacted, That said judges shall be conservators of the peace during the continuance of the election so held by them, and until the ballots shall have been counted by them and the necessary certificates required by this Act shall be made out, and shall be vested with the power and authority to commit offenders for any breach of the peace in like manner as any justice of the peace has under existing laws, and the Sheriff of Anne Arundel County shall have in attendance at each of said polls a deputy sheriff to preserve order and arrest offenders.