

Council shall constitute this section an additional ward of the City of Annapolis; and when the territory embraced in Section 28 B, shall become annexed to the City of Annapolis the Mayor and City Council shall constitute this section an additional ward of the City of Annapolis, and each section shall be entitled to one alderman in the City Council of Annapolis, who shall be a resident of the section which he represents and elected by the voters thereof on the second Monday in July, 1921, and on every second year thereafter, and all of the inhabitants thereof shall in all respects and to all intents and purposes be subject to the powers, jurisdiction and authority vested, or to be vested by law in the Mayor and City Council of Annapolis, and to all ordinances now in force, or hereafter to be enacted; and the parts so annexed shall in all respects be taken and considered as part of said City of Annapolis.

SECTION 28 J. And be it further enacted, That until the year 1930, the rate of taxation for city purposes upon all landed property situate within the territory which under the provisions of this Act, shall be annexed to the City of Annapolis, and upon all personal property liable to taxation in said territory, whether owned by persons, corporations or otherwise, and upon which taxes would be paid to Anne Arundel County, shall at no time exceed the present tax rate of Anne Arundel County; and until the year 1930, there shall not be for the purposes of city taxation any increase in the present assessment of such property as is now assessed; except such increase as may be made by Anne Arundel County for county purposes, and all property in said territory which is not now assessed but which may be within the same period liable to assessment, shall be assessed at the same rate as similar property is now assessed in said territory; and during the said period up to the year 1930, the City of Annapolis shall expend within said territory an amount at least equal to the amount of revenue derived from taxation on the basis herein set forth from said territory, in affording to the residents within said territory the rights and privileges accorded to and enjoyed by the residents within what are the present limits of said city; but nothing in this Act shall be so construed as to require the expenditure by said city of any greater sum; from and after the year 1930, the property, real and personal, in the territory so annexed, shall be liable to taxation and assessment, therefor, in the same manner and form as similar property within the